La Fontaine Academy is a state-funded school, which opened in Bromley in September 2014. It is a school, which provides excellent learning opportunities for our children.

As a SENDco at La Fontaine Academy, you will be able to work with a great team of colleagues and design a truly inspirational curriculum, which will enable our children to become confident and socially-minded 21st century citizens.

Being part of our team of teachers, you will be able to use your creativity and shape the way our school will provide excellent learning opportunities for our children.

The ideal candidate will:

Share our vision to create an outstanding team of teachers who will provide our children with the best education they deserve. We want every pupil at our school to succeed academically while also enabling them to grow as joyful individuals who will have the confidence to shape the world around them.

Have an understanding of the notions of Growth Mindset and Character.

Want to help build a team that will develop models of good practice in creative teaching and learning and language education in the UK.

Have a good understanding of the English National Curriculum.
