Passion – Urgency – Positivity – Aspiration – Commitment

We are looking for a talented, highly motivated Teacher to deliver the AIP priorities. The successful candidate will be expected to lead the development of the following AIP priorities:

- To lead the recovery of community engagement after restrictions through designing effective communication and creating opportunities for families to come into school;
- To be responsible for raising attendance to be above 96%, reduce PAs and improve punctuality;
- To design and implement a process to identify and support family needs;
- To introduce clear processes which support staff well-being;
- To implement an effective approach to supporting pupil's emotional self-regulation;
- For all children to understand and be able to articulate why we should 'work hard, be kind', and embed motto in academy culture.

You will be:

- an outstanding teacher, with a commitment to research and innovation in curriculum;
- a positive role model and team player, who can lead and motivate others;
- someone with a 'can do' attitude, and high expectations of themselves and others;
- passionate about improving the life chances of every child.
